

Turning a Penny Green

In this experiment you can turn a penny green.

Copper vinegar oxygen malachite

The penny has a copper coating on it. The vinegar let's off a gas that forms malachite on the copper. In a day or two it will turn green if it's in a closed container.